

Advocacy and Benefits 101: The Work of the disAbility Law Center of Virginia (dLCV)

Beth Klein
Disability Rights Advocate
dLCV

Saturday, October 26, 2024
10 AM to 11 AM

in-person at NVRC and on Zoom Live captioning and ASL interpreting provided

Join Beth Klein from the disAbility Law Center of Virginia to learn about the work that dLCV does, self-advocacy and Social Security (SSI/SSDI) benefits.

Located in Richmond, VA, the disAbility Law Center of Virginia (dLCV) is the designated Protection and Advocacy organization of Virginia.

Register to attend in-person: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/advocacy-benefits-101-the-work-of-the-disability-law-center-of-va-dlcv-tickets-1030167688287>

Register to attend on Zoom:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/join/register/tZUude6vrzMvGteSYVe0VhKu1oxlEcitHDEx>

Beth Klein is a Disability Rights Advocate with the disAbility Law Center of Virginia and works in the Resource and Vocational Access Unit (RVA). She has worked in the disability services field for the past twenty-five years in a variety of roles including Advocate, Job Mentor, Certified Benefits Planner, Sign Language Interpreter, adjunct professor and Outreach Specialist. She spent the majority of her career working with individuals with who are Deaf, Hard of Hearing or Deaf Blind. Beth is also hard of hearing, a hearing aid user and fluent in American Sign Language.